

Worth remembering

Our blades seesaw !!!

As one blade moves up—the other will move down, a necessary motion for stable autorotation.

And this principle does NOT stop just because you now have all three wheels on the ground...

As long as your blades turn (whether you taxi or not) you must be aware of the wind.

CHIPPER says

Remember this subject before you fly again as it can make a huge difference to the safety of your future flights.

Need more info? Ring Gyro School

The information on this leaflet is for guidance only. It is not intended to issue specific instruction (or flying instructions) to pilots or Instructors, with whom the responsibility for safe action lies.

Read it on the run...
Then continue to have fun !

 Gyro
School
feel the thrill!

CHIPPER

Rochester Airport
Maidstone Road
Chatham
Kent
ME5 9SD
UK

Phone: 0750 860 1964
Email: contact@gyroschool.co.uk
Website: www.gyroschool.co.uk

CHIPPER says

SAFETY ADVICE

For Gyroplanes
Leaflet 2

Subject Matter: Blade sailing